GRAND CIVIC AND MILITARY PROCES

In Philadelphia, February 22d, 1832, being the 100th Anniversary

GEORGE WASHINGT

The Soldier and Statesman the Brave and

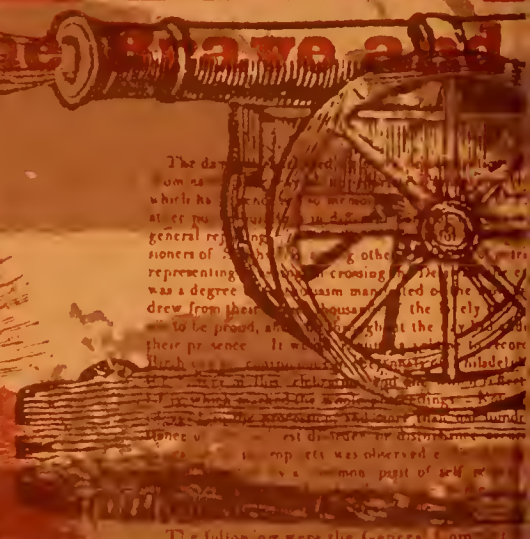
The day was ushered in on Wednesday morning with salvo's of cannon from the Arsenal in the city, and the Navy Yard, two salutes of 100 guns were discharged; and at a very early hour the general movement through the different streets of citizens and strangers of every age and both sexes gave notice of the full determination of all to share in, or witness the ceremonies prepared for the occasion. Every circumstance of the weather was favorable to the proposed fete. Steps had been taken by the proper authorities to remove as far as possible the mud through which the procession was to pass.

The shipping in the river were decorated with flags, ensigns and streamers, and the [ci]ty listened from their masts in the morning sun. The public buildings [as] well as many private ones, displayed flags upon the occasion, whic[h] ury.

At the different Trades, Fire Companies, and Military Corps, were [as]sembled at respective places of rendezvous—and the busy movement of citizens [to] and fro of the day and the different insignia of their craft and their official rank [ga]ve animating and enlivening while cheerful activity beamed in every face, and showed [in] the buoyancy of every step. When the different companies had been separated [in] order, they were marched into Third street, to take their stations on the line according [to] the arrangements—but as it was impossible that such immense numbers with cars, &c. could be formed into line, those that were not to be first in the order, were marched [to] Pine, Spruce, Walnut, Chesnut, Arch street, &c. and then marshalled into the general line. The [pr]escribed situation was opened by the passing of the procession.

The streets through which the procession was to pass were crowded at an early hour.—The side walks and carriage ways were filled with gazing pedestrians, who took occasional jostlings with [the] most good nature, as if sure that in such a dense mass, the shock which each received [was] of necessity be conveyed to another.

The following were the Generals [com]manding the celebration—[Ge]n. Walter R. Johnson, Thomas M. Peters, [Ge]n. Chas. Jr. Keyser, [Ge]n. Smith, Geo. [Ma]jor Benjamin W. Richards, Joseph R. [Ing]ersoll, Gen. Gilpin William Milnor, Jr., Charles [Ca]ldwell, Thomas M. Craige, James Ronaldson.



At about half past ten o'clock the procession moved up Third street, preceded by

On the sides of the car were painted [in] large letters the following inscription:

Caring for people and giving of your best —
Our hearts will forever more be grateful.
Understanding great pain and enduring lasting hardship while Riding with strength as your companion.
Applying much faith in matters most tragic, then,
Going towards recovery and reaching the unattainable goal.
Eternally living . . . loving and loved forever.

Mr. Jeffrey Kokoszka

"Courage is to feel
the daily dagger of relentless steel
And keep on living."

So it is with Mr. Kokoszka, a man, our teacher, who has had to face life
and its misfortunes with great determination.
The students of SHS are honored to dedicate MILESTONE '76 to the man who has taught us the true meaning of bravery.

SENIORS

"Don't you feel a change a coming drom another side of time,
Breaking down the walls of silence lifting shadows from your mind,
Placing back the missing mirrors that before you couldn't find,
Filling mysteries of emptiness that yesterday left behind?
And we all know it's better yesterday has past . . .

president SCOTT LAZO

vice president ANDREA COSTA

. . . now let's start living for the day that's going to last.
Don't you feel the day is coming that will stay and remain,
When the children see the answers that you saw the same?
When the clouds have all gone there will be no more rain
And the beauty of all things is uncovered again.
Yes, let's all start living for the day that's last."

We have been touched.
In some way SHS has reached out and moved us all.
It seems only yesterday, we were freshmen — a new class.
And then, a reluctant last year . . .
We know nothing will ever be the same.

But we have a new day yet ahead,
A start that is all our own.
We learn from the memories we share,
And the years together
Shall help us become what we wish to be.
We are leaving SHS
Yet we will leave a fragment of us behind,
Just as surely, a piece will come with us.

I look into the mirror — the mirror of my mind.
Time has brought me closer to reality,
It is no longer my enemy — we travel together.
The mirror reveals all my yesterdays.
The sadness, the joy, the smiles — the tears of all the passing years.

I am not afraid . . .
My yesterdays have taught me about tomorrow, guiding the way.
I look into the mirror . . the mirror of tomorrow.
Tomorrow's a brand new day — a new beginning.
It seems brighter already.

The bustling of this street shows familiar faces with Fair, blue sky overhead — cloudy in many places.
People moving, yet, not moved,
The hill and Cole Avenue are still the same but we have changed
Looking here we feel sad — why?
Memories are but sweet . . . lasting forever . . .
They're all we have within our soul to keep.
We will treasure these tokens as gold and share them when we must.
For these days gone by we assure will be ones never forgotten.
Still, what has tomorrow for offering?
The future is often frightening . . .
Seeing and feeling nothingness . . .
Our minds drawing a blank . . . questions . . . puzzlement . . .
Where will we be led?
What can we be sure of — and where are we to go hereafter . . .
How can we positively approach our endless search for identity
The light never dawning . . . more questions . . .
Now, have I decided to view the end
As the writer does the blank page just in front of him . . .
A Beginning.
Because I know time draws near . . . and I have to go away . . .
Yes, I must go away.

Mr. Jeff Larson was selected by the yearbook staff as one of two teacher-features to appear in this yearbook. Quoted on why teaching means so much to him he stated, "It's motivating, interesting and satisfying." His philosophy of teaching is best expressed in his own words: "I give as much as I can give; I respect as I am respected; and you can break the communication gap by getting directly involved with the activities, such as sports, that interest the kids."

In his nine years of teaching, Mr. Larson has discovered that the simple thank yous are the greatest rewards ever given to him by the people whom he has tried to help.

There are many people who give their all in helping others . . . Mr. Larson is but one of them, one of the people and memories that make life worth living and very special to each and every one of us.

IN MEMORY

"Mild and gentle, as he was brave, When the sweetest love of his life he gave."

James Whitcomb Riley

Russell Comstock was with us only a short while. Yet during his days at SHS, he gained respect and friendship from many. His genuine concern, kindness and quiet humor were rich qualities few people possess. Because of his sincere intention to help others, it was easy to get to know him. Once you knew him, you couldn't help but love him. We will all remember Mr. Comstock.

The 1975 Southbridge High School Pioneerettes Softball Team holds a distinction no other SHS sports team can boast of. The Pioneerettes became the Massachusetts State Champions the first year such a tournament was held. Though SHS has had some great athletic teams in the past, none has ever achieved the status of "State Champions."

The Pioneerettes have, for many years, been the class of girls softball in the state. During the past two seasons, our girls have won 43 consecutive games, a state record which will undoubtedly stand for many years. The 1975 season saw them winning 19 consecutive regular season games, the District III Championship in four games, and finally the State Championship against Apponequet Regional by the score of 9-8. They also easily captured the Border Conference Crown, truly a memorable season.

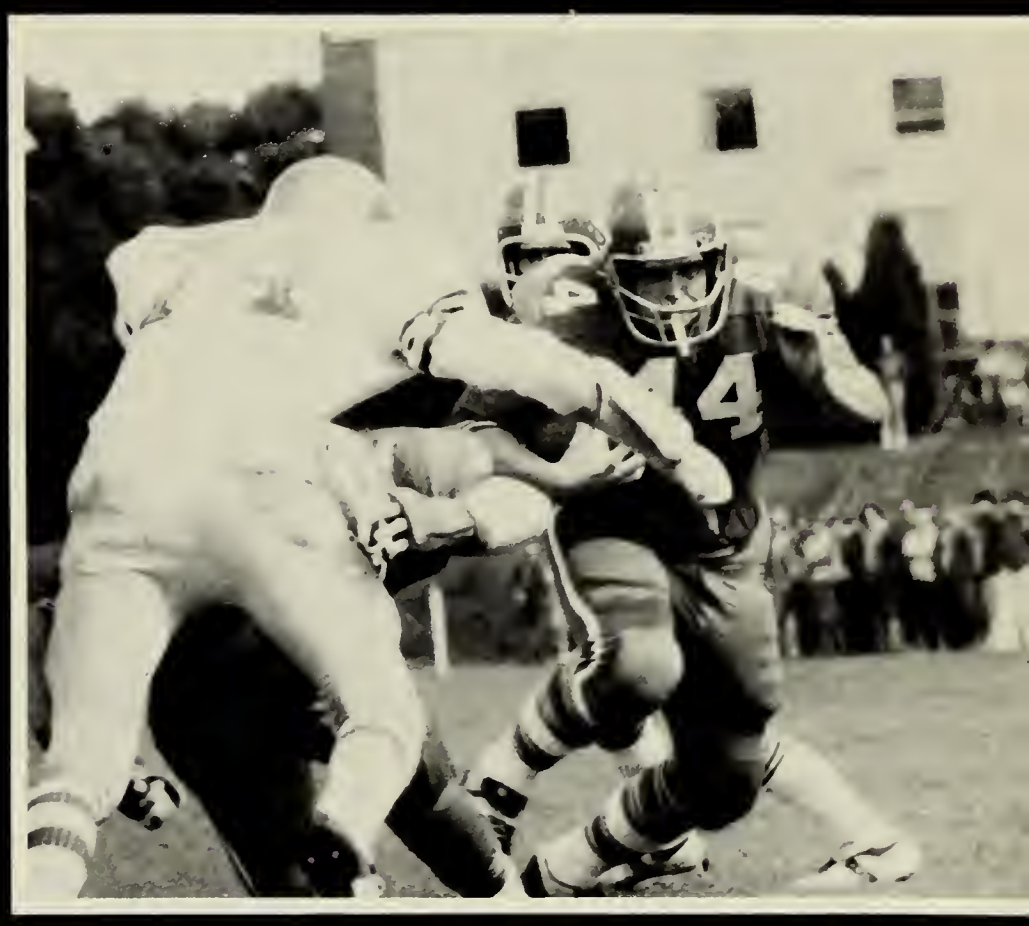
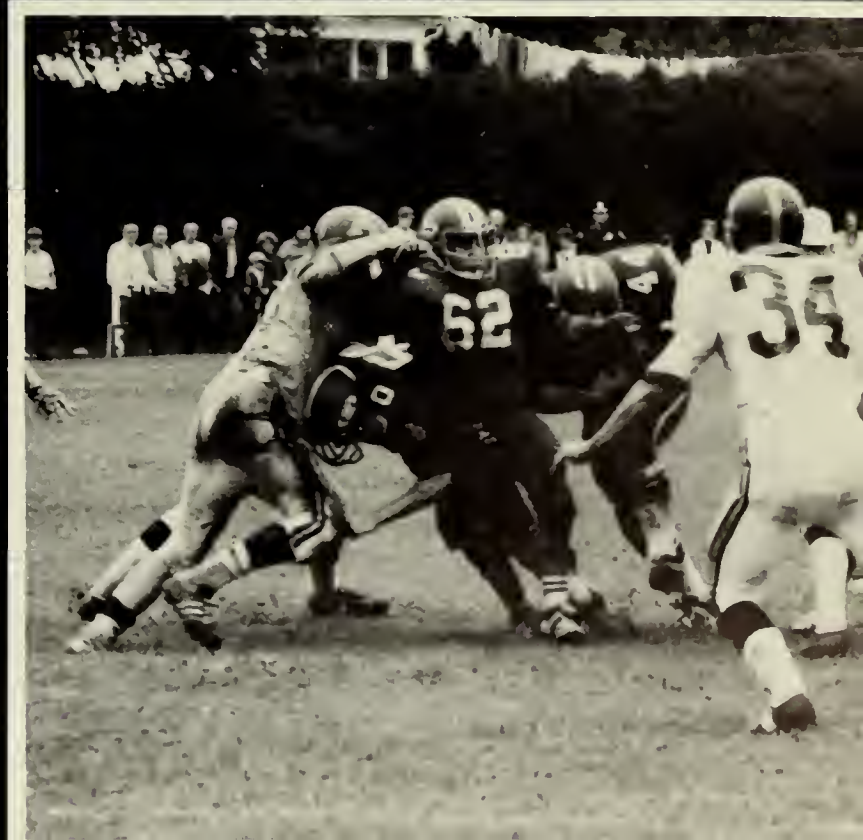
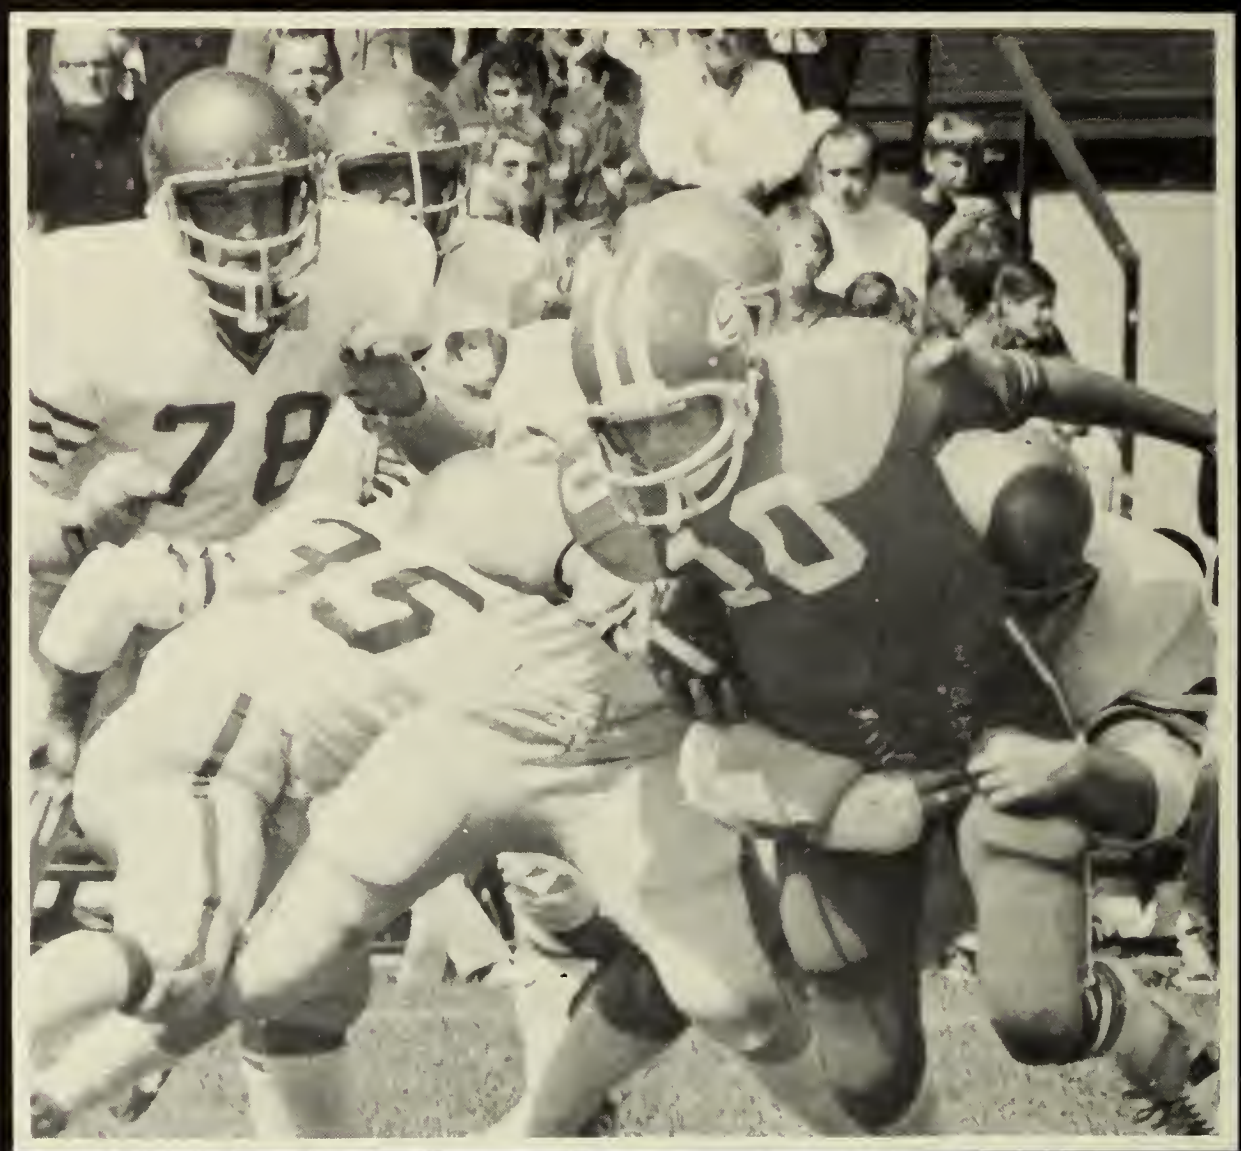
The 1975 Southbridge High season began with a 14 - 12 loss to the Clinton Gaels. SHS was favored and played well enough to win but were frustrated near the goal line once too often and lost, despite touchdowns by Stu Curboy and Dave Matte.

The Algonquin game was a pleasant surprise for Pioneer coach Marino as our team stunned them 21 - 8. The team's offense was led by quarterback Scott Lazo who completed 7 - 13 passes including two TD tosses to split end Tony Santilli. Stu Curboy bulled over for the other score. The aroused defense refused to yield to a physically larger team, allowing only one TD.

The Pioneers won three out of their next four games defeating Gardner 8 - 6, Shepherd Hill 34 - 8 and Athol 14 - 7 while losing a thriller to Auburn 13 - 12.







The Tantasqua game was just around the corner. On paper these rivals seemed to be about equal. Tantasqua had both the size and speed to halt their losing streak to the Pioneers. But Southbridge showed the brand of hard-nosed football which had typified their playing to that point. The result was Southbridge 14 and Tantasqua 0!

It was the team's first shutout of the year. They allowed a total of 117 yards with only forty-two of them coming on the ground. Defensive linemen Doug Lazo, Paul DiGregorio, Keith Bigness, Dennis Grenke, Tom Gajewski and Tom Lees were superior all afternoon. The offense was sparked early in the game by Stu Curboy's 75 yard TD gallop, a feat which earned him the MVP after the game.

After losing to St. John's, the Pioneers rebounded to top Wachusett Regional 38 - 6. They put together their best offensive showing of the season as Scott Lazo hit on 7 of 12 passes good for 103 yards, including four touchdown throws, two to Stu Curboy and two to Dave Matte.

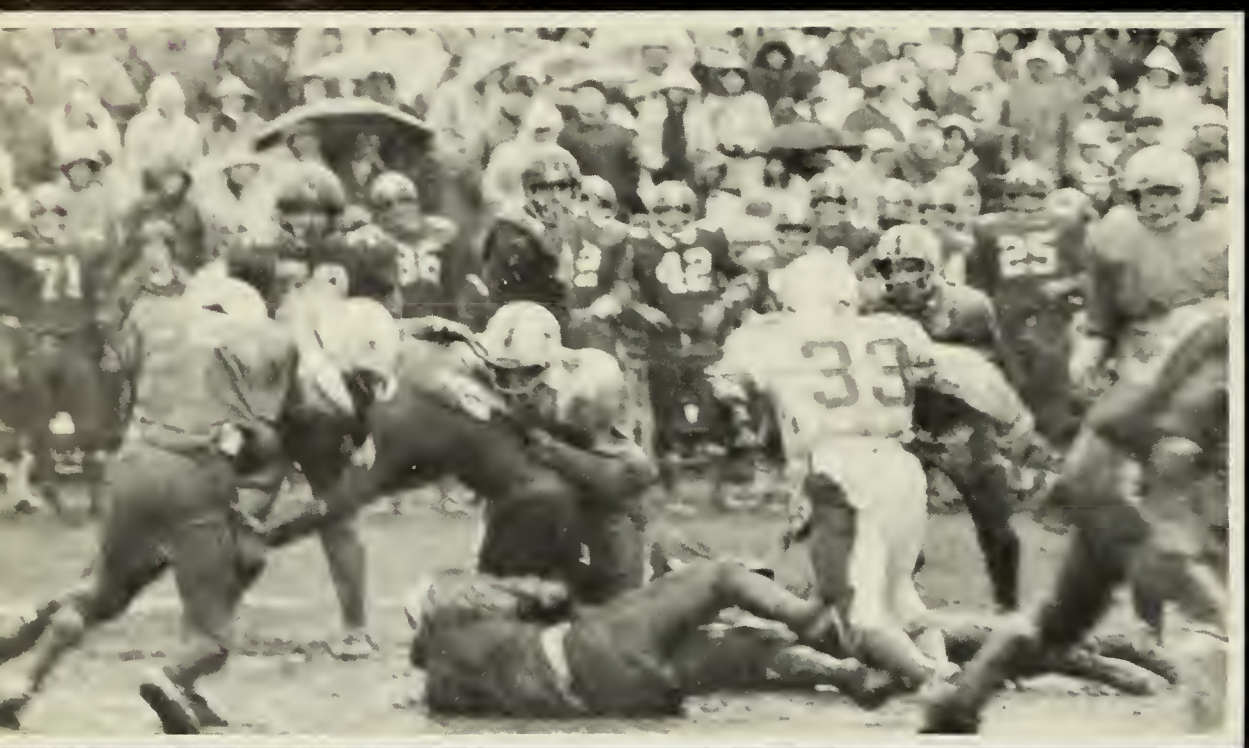
Turkey Day

In intolerable conditions which forced several other area games to be postponed, the annual Thanksgiving Day classic between Southbridge and Bartlett was played on schedule. Bartlett got off to an early 6-0 lead in response to talk that the Indians had not been providing enough competition. By halftime, Scott Lazo threw for a touchdown, scored himself and handed off to Brian Iozzo who splashed in for yet another. The Indians played determined football and were not eliminated until late in the game. Brian Iozzo received both the Vincent Sabatinelli and MVP awards for his inspiring play.

End Tony Santilli received recognition for his fine season by being selected to the Worcester Telegram and Gazette Super All-Star Team.



The Junior Varsity team wound up their season with 3 wins, 3 losses and 1 tie as coaches Giroux and Welch expressed satisfaction with the way their team performed during the season.

Pioneer Soccer

The 1975 Soccer team, under Head Coach Walter Gosk, worked to a fine 10-6-2 record. Columbian Exchange Student Al Gavaria led all scorers with 13 goals and 6 assists, followed closely by another Senior, Dave Riel, who had 12 goals, 5 assists.

The defense, headed by Kelly Tsongalis, Paul Blanchet and Ray Rivera, held their opponents to a 2.0 goal average per game. Hard-working underclassmen, such as Lee Standrowicz, Peter Vasolaridis, and Russ LeBlanc gained valuable experience.

The Pioneers advanced to the District III playoffs, but lost to a tough Bartlett squad in a grueling match.

In only its second year of competition, SHS girls' field hockey progressed at a rapid rate.

Though the sport was relatively new — to most of the players, the few experienced players set outstanding examples for the new comers. The girls' coach, Mrs. Lorraine Gately, proved an excellent tutor and was undoubtedly the trigger to their success.

The team topped off their first year record of 5-5-3 with an excellent 11-1-4 season in '75. The Pioneerettes overpowered several of their opponents as seven shutouts comprised a greater portion of their winning totals. Despite great team efforts, they were forced to settle for disappointing tie games with Quaboag, Wachusett, Auburn and Shepherd Hill.

Though the team concept was predominant during the field hockey season, individual efforts have to be acknowledged. Senior defensive players Sue Peters (halfback), Cheryl Caouette (goalie), and Jan St. Laurent (fullback) were true team leaders. Contributing to the team's success on offense were Barbara Brousseau, Sherri Brousseau, Carol Lambert, Marcy Capistrand and Annette Rajchl.

The invaluable experience picked up by underclassmen in both practice sessions and games during the '75 season augurs well for future Pioneerette field hockey.

Led by Senior hurler Ken LeBlanc and the class infield of George Knight, Bob Trahan, Jeff Earls and Brian Iozzo, the Pioneers rebounded from last year with a solid 12-7 season. LeBlanc was the stopper on the staff, but he only started once a week, so, much of the burden fell on Junior Rick Czyzewski and Sophomore Dino Tarquinio. The offense was led by line drive-hitting Jeff Earls, who was the top hitter on the club, and peppery Bob Trahan, a tough out at the plate as well as an asset on the basepaths.

Coach Santilli accomplished a lot with his team this year. The Pioneers jumped off to a fast start winning four of their first five and six of their first eight games. For the first time in recent years the Southbridge nine spent most of their season in the Border Conference race. They were not eliminated until the 16th game of the season when they were nipped by Shepherd Hill 5-4. They also beat their arch-rivals the Bartlett Indians for the first time in several seasons. The Pioneers placed three players on the Border Conference All-Star team: LeBlanc, second baseman Trahan, and first baseman Knight.

Pioneerette Tennis

One of the newer sports at Southbridge High School, girls' tennis made great strides during the 1975 season. Under the tutelage of Coach Sharon Edwards, the Pioneerettes slowly but surely progressed to a point of respectability as the season wore on. With only one Senior on the squad, Captain Debbie Bernard, and little previous match experience, wins were scarce, but the experience gained by team members Cheryl Cesolini, Tammi Lazo, Cheryl Marcotte, Lisa Brown, Maureen Richards and others will be helpful in the future. future.

Pioneer Tennis

The boys' Pioneer tennis team, under Coach James Kane, finished their first season with a commendable 8-6 record. It was a young team with Captain Stan Tenczar and Kosta Divris the only Senior squad members. Tenczar and Junior Rick Poirier led the doubles team while Stu Curboy, also a Junior, and Freshman Tom Walkowiak headed the singles. Neil Kirk, Don Marino and Ted Cobden, played steadily throughout the year. Coach Kane stressed poise and determination in giving his team a winning attitude. It was a fine beginning for boys' tennis at SHS.

Marv Carron, Chuck Chase and Jeff Pontbriand, all Seniors, also had fine years while greatly contributing to the team's success. The upcoming basketball season looked bright for the Pioneers, with Senior captain Pablo Molina leading the way and Dave Lafleche returning from the Marines to play the hoop for SHS. Juniors Paul Blanchet and Tony Santilli were also hopefuls for another good year.

But the 1975-76 season opened on a dismal note as they dropped their first two games. The Prouty defense checked the Pioneers on 57 points while tallying 60 of their own. In double overtime, the Oxford Pirates sunk Southbridge 84-83.

But the worst was over as the Southbridge team rallied to drop Quaboag 82-66, with Pab Molina scoring 25 points, leading the scorers. Tony Santilli and Dave Lafleche added 16 each.

Martha's Vineyard traveled to Southbridge losing a heartbreaker to the Pioneers 69-67. Molina was the top scorer with 19 points. Junior Mark Montigny scored 14.

The Pioneers won their seventh straight against the Auburn Dandies, 55-50. Blanchet had 23 points and Molina scored 16.

After finishing the 1st half of the season with a fine 7-2 record, the Pioneers looked forward to the second half of their schedule.

The success of the Pioneers Junior Varsity team indicates that there will be talent available to fill in next year. The team had big wins over Tantasqua, 61-49, and Bay Path, 78-41. Neil Kirk was an outstanding scorer and Mark La-Coste was invariably consistant.

Pioneerette Basketball

Jumping back from a disappointing loss in the quest for the District III title, the Pioneerettes again pulled together to take the small school division title of the Clark Tournament.

An outstanding team effort combined with an effective zone press, steals and turnovers were the key as the girls romped over Shepherd Hill, Lester, and in the finals, Lunenburg. Exception offensive players were Cheryl Caouette, Sherri Brousseau and Sue Peters, who was also named MVP in the small school division. Clearing the defensive boards were captain Lisa Corbit and Jan St. Laurent.

Not to be out done this year, the girls were top seeded in the Wachusett Regional Holiday Invitational. After easily defeating David Prouty, the team did away with arch rival Douglas by a score of 66-28. Wachusett was paired against Southbridge in the finals, which proved to be one of the most exciting games of the season. The Pioneerettes win resulted in senior co-captains Sue Peters and Jan St. Laurent and junior Sherri Brouseau being named to the All Star Team. Co-captain Cheryl Caouette and sophomore Pam Molina played tenacious defense throughout the tournament.

In the 1975-76 season, the Pioneerettes racked up an impressive record. The team proved their abilities early in the year with resounding wins over every opponent.

Carol Lambert, Marcy Capistrand and Chris Svedberg provided the defense necessary to retain the lead built up in the early minutes of each game. Offensive sparkplugs were Annette Rejchl, Kim Brouseau and Jan Duquette. These are obtaining the necessary experience to continue the team success in the future.

Even coach Ellie Tremblay believes, "We have the ability, the winning attitude and the team work necessary to produce one of SHS's most outstanding basketball teams." With all these factors in their favor, how can they lose?

Hockey

The 1975 sports scene saw hockey enter into its third year of existence. Coach Hapgood concentrated on skating, conditioning and positional play, the three major ingredients to success in high school hockey.

Steve Metras captained the squad for his second straight year along with alternates Rich Earls and Bob Pickarski.

The first line had Junior Steve Gravel, a leading goal scorer last year, flanked by Ron Petro and Jim Jalbert. Metras and Gravel were on the South County Leaugues' All-Star team in the previous year. The second line had Paul LaRochelle at center, with Rick Poirier on the wings. They were all three year veterans, as were the tri-captains.

The goal tending was left to senior Mike Blake. Mike's inexperience did not hinder his success, since his desire and hard work more than made up for it. The highlight in the early going was a 6-3 upset win over a tough Millbury High team.

We May Never Pass This Way Again

Once again the junior-senior prom festivities were held at the beautiful Pleasant Valley Country Club. Couples gathered on the lawn, transforming the country club into an atmosphere of anticipation. The evening was filled with much music and dancing to the 'Sounds of Seeco'. The traditional grand march of senior girls was also held. Although the choice was difficult, Joan Mills was given the title of queen, with Kelly Sullivan, Janet McGrath, Jo Ann Theodoss and Marianne Lavallee serving as her court. It was definatly a night for which the successful class of '76' will always remember.

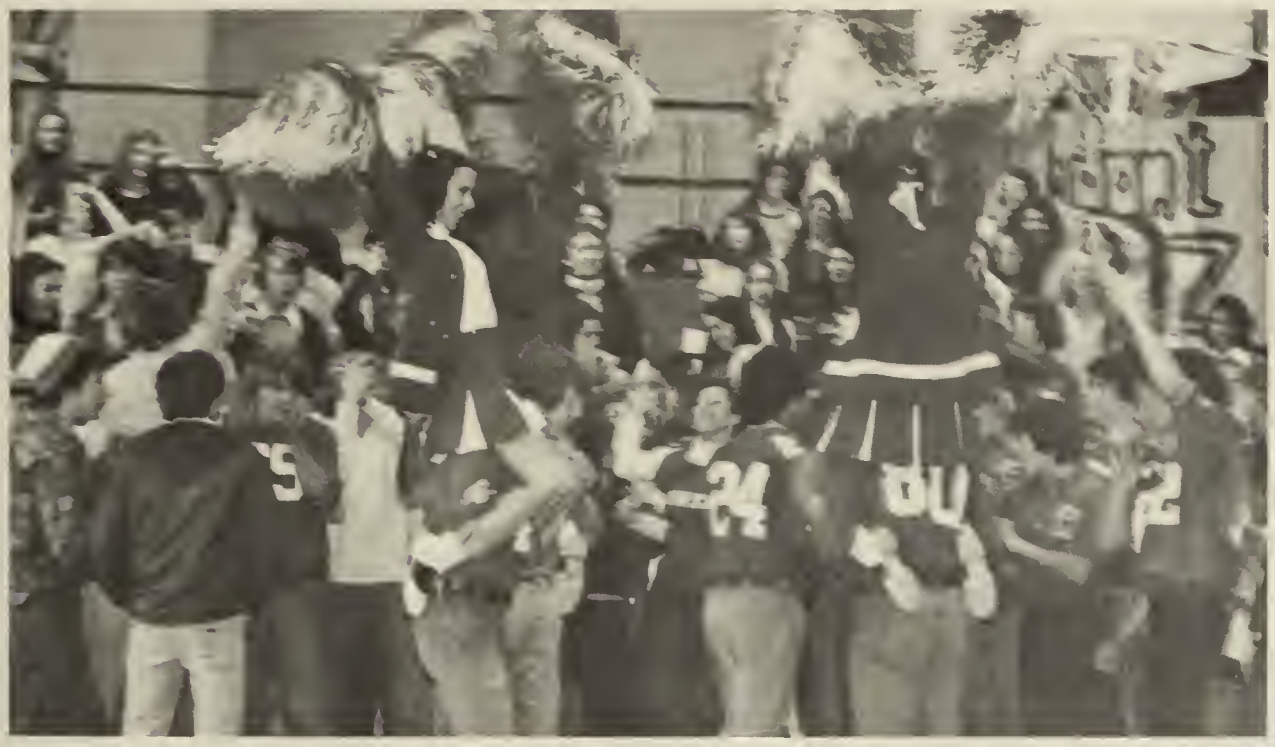
This year the drama club presented a new idea to all their fans at SHS. Three one act plays were displayed with abundant acting ability.

The Witch's Sabbath was a dramatic sketch of the witch era in Salem. The actors captured the eerie feeling very well.

Occurence at Owl Creek Bridge was a historic play performed in a bicentennial spirit.

Shut Up Martha was a delightful comedy which kept the audience roaring.

Thanksgiving Rally



The Thanksgiving Day game preparations began the week before with a decorating contest. Life size football players were hung on the wall in bright bold colors with sayings representing the spirit of the students at SHS.

Vitality was at its peak during the Thanksgiving Day rally. All classes were wild with enthusiasm which gave the players the confidence they needed. Yelling contest were held along with the judging of the decorations. Much support was given from the band, majorettes and cheerleaders. Sophomores received the 'Big Mouth' award while the Mighty Seniors won the decorating contest.

SHS spirit filled the town the night before the game, when the car caravan travelled through the streets follow by a bon fire at Henry Street field.

Despite rain, the Pioneers sucessfully won the Turkey Day game!

Variety Show

Talent again prevailed at SHS, with the "stars shining brightly". This year's variety show was a blend of comedy, music, dancing, and drama. A terrific show of outstanding performances was displayed with frequently added commercials yielding some light slapstick to the fun. Applause was heard loud and clear ... A good time was had by all.

Student Council Day

The Central District Massachusetts Association of Student Councils met December 4, 1975 with thirty-one neighboring communities attending the convention.

The SHS Student Council, under the direction of Mr. Jeffery Larson, hosted the series of events for the day which included: welcome speeches, swapshops and a delicious buffet dinner. The main guest speaker of the day was Attorney General Frank Bellotti, who gave an inspiring talk to all interested students at the conference.

The entire day was exciting and prosperous in that much pride and care was shown to all that SHS is the best!

SHS

NHS Induction

The annual National Honor Society induction was once again held in the spring of '75'. Over thirty students were given the privilege of joining the society through hard work and continual effort on the part of each. Under the advisorship of Senor Laconto the group has lived up to its quality in performance and enthusiasm which has been expected.

The honored guest speaker for the day was our State Representative Mr. Jack Farland, who gave a motiviating speech to the audience centered around the topic of "getting involved and turned on to life itself."

The SHS jazz band performed a couple of numbers which concluded the assembly.

Senior Party

The class of "76" broke tradition by having a Senior Party, which replaced the annual class trip. The party was held at Rom's restaurant on January thirty-first. A buffet dinner was served followed by much dancing with music provided by the sounds of VanHeflin.

The turnout was great and an enjoyable time was had by all, proving the success of this new SHS function.

SPIRIT OF '76

Winter Carnival

During the week of February ninth through the fourteenth, the Spirit of '76 was shown by all the students of SHS who got involved in the annual Winter Carnival. The variety of competition between classes included contests such as volleyball, basketball, tricycle races and ping pong tournaments. Other activities such as pie eating and a staring contest added to the spirited fun. Talent was also displayed in the murals, class sing and the chess tournament. There were also poster and essay contests which added color to the Carnival.

Winter Carnival queen was chosen — Lynette Mathieu recieving the winning rose. Cathy O'Brien, Mellen Morrill, Joanne Servant and Sherri Brousseau served as her court.

The Valentines Day dance concluded the Carnival with dancing to the sensational group, Maze. The Jolly Juniors took the entire Winter Carnival leaving the Mighty Seniors second, Sophomores third and Freshman last, the spirit of '76 prevailing once again ...
